

YOUR DOMESTIC TRAVEL CONSULTANT

If under 18, be sure your parents see this form

For those of you who will be flying to Training Camp, we strongly recommend you purchase your airline tickets through John Gossen at Bursch Travel. Bursch Travel has been in the travel business since 1956 and has worked with our teams for over ten years. Their association with American Express allows them to negotiate some of the best possible rates for our international flights as well as your domestic ticket.

John Gossen will coordinate your domestic flight to Training Camp with any other students who will be flying in; and will coordinate your domestic flight home with the international flight. He is at the airport for our flight overseas and for many of our flights back to help us through any complications. He handles problems such as late flights and lost tickets, and also arranges any flights should anyone need to return from overseas early.

When you purchase your ticket through Bursch Travel, it not only ensures cooperation with RS flights, but also assures you that you will be well taken care of both in your initial plans and in any problems you may encounter. If you book through John and your international flight comes in late when you return home, John will automatically book you on the first available flight home. This is especially important in light of the fact that official figures show that one in four flights will be either delayed, canceled or diverted. If you book your own flight and miss your domestic connection, you will have to arrange an alternate flight home yourself (which can take hours at the airport).

TRAVEL CONSULTANT & UNACCOMPANIED MINOR FORM
Due by May 23, 2012 (if applicable)

UNACCOMPANIED MINOR SERVICE
If 15 or under, be sure your parents see this form

Airline requirements these days can be somewhat sticky. If you have a child 15 or under (depending on the airline) who will be flying to or from training camp, your child may be required to use the unaccompanied minor service. The requirements for this service vary from airline to airline, therefore we recommend the use of our travel agent. He is able to book your son or daughter on the same flight as other students, which can both reduce the cost of the service and simplify the process if multiple students are involved. If you choose to book your own flight, please check into the requirements before booking.

If your child is required to use this service, you must fill out the bottom of this form and return it to Reign Ministries. When your child is returning home at the end of the summer, the airlines require a name, address and phone number of the person that will be meeting him/her at the gate. If this person is not present, the airline will NOT release the child. The form below provides the needed information for our staff person who will check your student in for their return flight. If the information below changes, you are responsible to contact the ministry and let us know who will be meeting your child. For the flight to Training Camp, Royal Servants will notify you by the Thursday before your child flies with the name of the person who will meet your child at the gate. This is the name you will give to the airline at check in. Also note that there is a charge, usually between $40—$75, each direction, that must be paid on site when you check your student in. You are responsible to pay this fee and to send your child with the money for the return flight. Send the money in an envelope with your child's name on it, and we will collect it when your child is met at the gate.

If you have any questions, please call 763-535-9555 or email royalservants@reignministries.org.

- * The age limit for unaccompanied minors varies depending on the airline. Please check with your airline to see if this applies in your situation.
- * Once again, if your child is a minor, there is a charge, usually between $40—$75, each direction, that must be paid on site when checking in.
